delilmington Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C. :

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1873. The number of persons out of employment in Philadelphia is appalling.

members, and these lazy legislative $1,000,000, and the assumption of part lastration of it upon the Bench is to the coop' by going home, do not earn tionate to the territory sold. the salt of their porridge.

enion the execution of a decree of ar- Florida. State, the corporations and others in- and in due time an Alabama Senator brother, the Senator, and the Chairman an equivalent for them, to vessels terested, and is condemned in no com- and Railroad President. This same of the Senate Committee on Finance, which might come to her ports in disquainted with the facts of the case, credited as a Commissioner, went legislation.

The House of Delegates of the Vir- tor, however, seemingly with a purpose land, gmia Legislature has taken very appro- to put it through at once, some of our priate action in regard to the Louisians friends in Alabama do not seem to like outrage, by adopting the following it and protest that the movement is noth-bly does earnestly unite in the appeal session of Congress, in order that million of dollars in order that Florida give to those people a just, free, and Republican government.

ture, but simply to make it a matter of Carotina.

wish to hear the representatives of the CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. assignation of the head centre of the to apply the proper remedy.

President Grant is evidently a man law, the guardians. solute power, time alone can tell.

WEST FLORIDA-ITS ANNEXA- ever and wherever the necessity there-TION TO ALABAMA. The State of Alabama has for many Bar will form themselves into an assoyears looked with a covetous eye upon ciation for the purification and preser- of the papers giving the sole credit to that portion of the State of Plorida vation of its morals, if not of its man- this veteran statesman of opening up that lies west of the Chattahoochie or that lies west of the Chattahoochie, or ners. rather the Appalachicola River; and in- It would be a hazardous asser- to sending out an American expedideed if natural boundaries be taken tion, and one certainly that we are not tion. The Governor has written a letinto consideration it would seem that prepared to make, to say there is no ter to a friend in this city in regard to One insertion of a little advertisement the territory in question ought originated to purify the Bench and the Bar taste and so full of general interest for a clerk in a railroad office brought nally to have been a part of Alabama. In North Carolina. It may be that we asked and obtained permission The Chattahoochie River for a long are no worse off than our neighbors. to make extracts from it. The reader The Vienna exhibition will cost distance is the boundary line between Here and elsewhere both the Bench will see that President Fillmore enmarly $8,500,000. To make it pay it Alabama and Georgia, and it would and the Bar have been prostituted to will be necessary for 20,000,000 of seem both natural and desirable for subserve political or partisan or pervisitors to patronize the exhibition, the line to follow its waters to the sonal ends. Both Bench and Bar power to promote the expedition. In This large number is confidently ex- Gulf of Mexico. If this annexation have become lobbyists and electionpected by the Director General, who shall take place Alabama will gain at eerers. Indeed, there is no one so fit is said to be enthusiastic over the least two additional ports on the Gulf to be a lobbyist as a lawyer, because it solely in answer to the enquiries coast: that at Pensacola, the terminus of the seal of professional scorecy made to him. The Cieveland Herald makes these; of the railroad from Montgomery, pos- imposed upon the doings of an atshocking remarks about the members sesses one of the finest harbors in the torney-at-law. It is a mere waste of the Ohio Legislature: "There are country. Alabama will also gain seven words to tell an intelligent public, in for the imprisonment and maltreatmembers of the Legislature who spend additional counties, covering some six this day, that many attornies have ment of American seamen, who had more hours in Columbus smoking, or seven thousand square miles, and used the cloak of professional secrecy denking and loafing than in their containing a population of 18,370 to disguise themselves in while acting through her country for exhibition official duties. When there is a call of whites, and 10,199 blacks according to as accomplices in crime. the House the Sergeant-at-Arms knows | the last census. The price to be paid | But this peculiar disgrace does not pretty well where to find a score of the by Atabama to the State of Florida is attach only to the Bar. A striking illonts, with those who have 'cleared of the State debt of Florida proport be found in the case of Judge C. T. Shert had suffered ship wreck in their junks, The people of West Florida we for Ohio. This man, a brother of United believe have always been willing to be States Senator Sherman, of Ohio, and ON COMPLAINT of L. D. Childs and oth- annexed to Alabama, and the question of General Sherman, has brought such that our ships should not return again, er creditors, Hon. G. W. Logan, Judge has from time to time been mooted, disgrace upon the profession, of which even for such a purpose. 3d. Having of the Superior Court of the ninth ju- but ansuccessfully, owing to the oppo- he is a member, that the Bar Associatheial district of this State, has issued sition from the other portions of the tion of Cleveland, Ohio, have proposed we had become somewhat near neigh on order restraining and enjoining the State. It was natural that a Florida a resolution calling upon him to resign bors to the Japanese, and it was concommissioners from selling the Wil- Legislature should be unwilling to for the reason that he has evinced sidered that a nanion comprising an mington, Charlotte & Rutherford Rail- give up a good population and a "such a want of integrity and such a empire of thirty odd millions of inhabiroad, now advertised to be sold on the revenue paying one to another State. moral turpitude as to destroy all con-10th of April under a decree of the Su- But natives and radicals rarely see any fidence in his judicial administration, an advancement in arts, letters and perior Court of New Hanover county, thing from the same standpoint, and and require that he should at once science quite equal to the Chinese, This is rather a new proceeding to unfortunately after the war the Radi- resign and relieve the Federal Court should not be permitted longer to keep most of us, for a Judge to restrain and cals got possession of the State of from the embarrassment consequent other Circuit Court, and if earried out, ' About this time, also, "Honest Judgeship." Final action upon the reso- tions. we may soon hear that some Judge has John" Pennington, who had so- lution has been delayed in order that the It was therefore resolved that the restrained the sheriff in the execution journed in North Carolina for a disgraced man may have a hearing if he left in the should abstain from the of the sentence of a criminal, or the number of years after leaving the desires one. It will be remembered cruel treatment of mariners who might court itself from issuing any orders at circus business, went to Alabama and that Judge Sherman claimed to have be thrown on her shores by casualty, the door of the Senate committee plimentary terms, by all who are ac- " Honest John" having been duly ac- to have procured for them favorable The men in whose favor the decree of down to Tallahassee, the capital city of We trust that the Cleveland Bar by which Japan would yield her exclu- memory of the several expedients sale was made, offer to complete the the Land of Flowers, and by his elo- Association will not weary in well sive policy of two centuries, and open accorded to by "Heel-taps" to put her Road if they can get the control, and quence and winning ways generally, doing. Its action thus far reflects her ports to the commerce of the world. this is not the first attempt by petty cred- persuaded his Radical compeers in the great credit upon the integrity and officers' and sailors' rights was brought iters to levy black mail, for the pur- Legislature of that State, that it would intelligence of its members. We trust, to my attention by Commodore M. C. pose of "a raise." - Raleigh State Ag- be an exceedingly good thing to part also, though we fear it is hoping for Perry. I at once resolved to adopt it with so fine a population and so fine a too much, that the good work will be and carry out the enterprise, if possitaken up by other associations and President, who, after consideration.

t Character. ing but "an act of charity shown by Ala-Resolved. That this General Assembama Radicals to their thieving com- politicare among the old time Whigs Congress, and Gen. Bayley, of Virginpanions in Florida"; that "Alabama now being made by the people of Lou-isiana to the President, for an extra is called on to buy West Florida for a them, his giory departed, and like Foreign relations, called to inquire Many F. Walker, deliberately locked necessary measures may be inaugura- thieves may fatten on the money." withstanding the loss of property and ted by that honorable body which will This is "shocking bad" language and the two free use of applejack, he mainwe desire it to be distinctly understood | trisien the dignity of ex-Judge, dressed We trust the other House of the that it is not our own. The words are when he had taken more than his usus Assembly will concur in the resolution, those of another whose name we will allowance of the favorite beverage he and that it will be presented in due not give lest our "Ex-Chief Judicial, was very pions at suchtimes, always atform to the President; not however, in &c., should bring the matter before tending church, and siting near the stand tions went on. I resigned upon my any expectation that it will accomplish the Grand Jury of Bladen. Meanwhile as erectives circumstances would admit, and respective fervently. On one ocany good purpose, for we feel sure we warn our Alabama cotemporaries casion a Baptist brother was holding that Mr. Grant places no value upon that Edward Cantwell is still Solicitor forth with energy and unction on the the opinion of the Virginia Legisla- for the Cape Fear District in North evils of the times, and in one of his record. As the people of Louisiana. But to return. It seems carrious unsteadily balancing himself on his have well said, they are not under the that "Honest John" Pennington cane, said solemnly. Here I am, sir; protection, but under the correion of the Should rise to such prominence as here I am. The elder, though agood United States. Its Government gives to be entrusted with negotiation of so support to as arrant a despotism as delicate a character as that pertaining course, and, soon warming up to his exists in Russia or Turkey. By the to the division, it not the spoliation of work, again called out, "Show me a something has been added to science united action of all the departments of a sovereign State; spoliation is doubt- a hypocrate. Show me a hypocrate; its Government, Judicial, Executive less the correct word, for it the annex. Show me a hypocrite! Judge W its Government, Judicial, Executive less the correct word, for if the annex-and Legislative, they are treated as ation be consummated, Alabama will across a cat that intervened, touched subjects, and not as citizens. As its lose her million dollars and Fiorida Dencon D. on the shoulder with his talents, virtues and patriotism I cherhead, President Grant is a despot, will lose her territory and a population came, and said, "Deacon D., why don't ish the highest regard, or being supyou respond sir? Why don't you reand whether he is called President, of eighteen thousand white people.

territory as that of West Florids.

HAR ASSOCIATIONS.

tion that has of late been turned to a . Tive million of the new postal cards action of the Virginia Legislature will. Yers of a community, for the purpose by, of Springfield, Mass., on the 1st have any effect; but for all that, we of preserving a high standard of honor proximo. It has been stated that there ports, and such a diversity of opinion, in the profession. In spite of all the will be two kinds of cards one ruled, people of the Old Dominion speak out abuse that has been heaped upon laws vers, we venture to say that there was kind of a card, and that will be of a no business or calling in life in which cream color, five and one-eighth inches have requested the views of the prothe standard of personal and profes. in length, and three inches in width, Mr. George William Curtis has ressonal honor was higher than in that Cortis has ressonal honor was higher than in that signed his position as a member of the of the law. This was unquestionably the other bears an ornamental scroll-Civil Service Board, and for the reason, true in former times. In these later work border one-eighth of an inch in it is positively asserted by the New days, a great tidal wave of corruption width. In the right hand upper cor-York Evening Post, that "he re- seems to have swept over the land. Liberty, surrounded with a seroll-work gards several important appointments With the evidences of professional border, in which are the words: "U. recently made as a virtual abandon- and judicial corruption before us, it S. Postage- one cent." In the left upment of the Civil Service Reform. would be idle to contend that the legal per corner, and extending two-thirds ment of the Civil Service Reform. would be idle to contend that the legal across the card, are the words, in vel-testimony of those who were eye with the Post says its authority for the fraternity had escaped contamination. The Post says its authority for the fraternity had escaped contamination. statement is Mr. Curtis himself, and it We have corrupt judges, and we have tal Card"; and below in similar let- Wednesday morning. First, the water says further that the statement is made corrupt lawyers, just as we find cor-"in precisely Mr. Cartis' own words."; rupt men engaged in every other side—the message on the other." Be- height from the testimony of our If there is any reliance whatever to be business. It is a good sign, however, and to the left, is the word watchman, and the fireman, Wm. Tayin serip, followed by a line ex- lor, both being examined privately placed in the veracity of the Post there that the members of the Bar them- tending across the card, for the name under the most favorable circumstancan be no doubt of the cause of Mr. selves have had the courage to look of the party addressed. Below this ces for arriving at the truth. Wir. Curtis' resignation. It needed not this the truth in the face, and unsparingly are two other lines—one being for the Taylor's testimony we consider valua-

Through the instrumentality of their it is not expected that any one will as engineer, he being perfectly familiar gust because of its habitual disregard | Bar Associations, they have sought to | put more than the address on one | with the condition of things around by the President, to satisfy the public purge their honorable profession of side, there is no prohibition against him, but the key to the mystery we by the President, to satisfy the public that Mr. Grant regards the whole the men who have brought disgrace thing simply as an election erring dodge. Upon it. In New York the work is it contrary to law to place printing who has been in our employ seven The President seems to regard the Civit accomplished has been such as to place on the cards instead of writing. The states that the engine was cards will be distributed to postmasthur off, and had been about tender the people of that city and State under the people of the people of that city and State under the people of gards the Women's Suffrage plank in everlasting obligations. There, the gards the Women's Suffrage plank in the Philadelphia Platform, that is, as association with a boldness and a will be sold at the stamp-window at safety valve, from some cause, rebeing intended only "for Buncombe." determination equalled only by the one cent each. The question has fre- fused to perform its functions, concenbeing intended only "for Buncombe." determination equalicution of the just as the storm came up. Becoming believed him to have been murdered.

It is simply absurd to suppose that a success of its efforts, struck at no card, bearing a one cent stamp, will three boilers for that time, that frightened at the firedness of the wind, It is simply absurd to suppose that a success of its efforts, struck at no quently been asked whether a plant training the whole evaporation of the pust as the storm cand, bearing a one cent stamp, will three boilers for that time, that frightened at the firedness of the wind, not be allowed to pass through the is, the work for sixty horses for they turned around to run back to the mails the same as the Government ten minutes, concentrated in one school house, when two trees, falling and duty as a Lieutenant-Colonel over very highest jurisdiction. Not only eards; but the law prevents the use or terrific blow. This is the conclusion together, struck them to the ground in the heads of old gray heards who had did it accomplish this great feat, but transmission of any hul the official we have arrived at from all the facts sight of the teacher and the rest of the postal cards is and testimony before us. We ought school children. As soon as the teacher and the rest of the postal cards is and testimony before us. the great city, of which they were, by Star.

with a head and will of his own. One The magnitude of the task accom- sented in the Georgia Penitentiary exby one he is shaking off the shackles, plished in New York by the Bar Asso- copt Congressmen, made. It is earnestly to be hoped, wher- Past Sachems.

fore may arise, that the members of the Ex-Governor Graham and the Jap-

all. But aside from principle, we are there became a model of "ye Southern acted as a lobbyist in Congress in the and 2d, that she should no longer deinformed that this movement is deci- planter," with the traditional broad-interest of certain New York parties dedly detrimental to the interest of the brim Panama hat and white linen suit, and through his influence with his fresh provisions, &c., upon being paid

IND THE LOUISIANA TROL. Since their "Attorney General's" vigorously prosecuted autil not a approved it, and it became a cabinet lawyer, begislator, Judge and lending "where the wandline twineth." Not-

The "Bar Association" is an institu- All About the New Postal Cards, ered to the Postmaster-General for issue by the Morgan Envelope Compaand the other without lines - but such is not the case. There will be but one for the message) is entirely plain, and for the county and State. Although ploy some years, and part of the time imposed upon the Chief Executive of the nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition, demonstrates how powerthe nation. At what point he will stop, interposition of the children is a farmer and he left samples of his pantalogns. if he stops at all before he attains ab-

ancse Expedition.

Milmington

Au article has been going the rounds | How He was Captured by a Female tered heartily into the scheme as proter, we would say that he had no idea

somewhat as follows: We had recent cause of complaint against Japan. 1st been wrecked on her coast, and whom she had imprisoned in cages and sent very grudgingly and reluctantly she had released and surrendered up these, after some deaths among them, to an American naval vessel, sent to demand them. 2d. Some of her scamen, who man, a Judge of the United States Court | were picked up by American vessels and sent to her coasts, and she was obstingte in refusing the liberty to land acquired California and established our settlements on the Pacific coast, tants, and a series of islands extending herself out of the pale of civilization, and fail to observe and keep the usages apon his continued occupancy of the imposed by the law of civilized intress. 3d. Over and above these demands, it was hoped, that by a proper diplomacy, a treaty might be obtained.

The subject pertaining to Naval

ble. I brought it to the notice of the Legislature has taken hold of the mat- corrupt Judge can be found in the measure. I therefore gave the order designating the ships to be got in readiness, and detailed the officers for the expedition, Commodore Perry, who suggested it being placed in command. Oid Judge W, of -, in the Old After the matter became known to the many others of his contreres, has gone into the objects of it. Upon their beproval. Mr. Ritchie, the editor of the Union, with whom I had kind relations, remonstrated with me, that we neatly, carried a gold-headed cane, and were about to compromise the honor of the Government by a warlike de monstration against'a weak and semibarbarian power. But the preparanomination for the Vice-Presidency, on the first of August, 1852, and the expedition safled in the Autumn fol lowing. Its result is before the world. I had on hand at the same time another great project in the exploration ard!" The Judge rose to his feet, and, of the valley of the Amazon by Lieutenants Herndon and Gibbon, which was out of the line of routine of affairs, which I instituted at the instance of Lieutenant Maury. Herndon had returned before my resignation-Gibbon and the general culightenment of the whabitante of those distant regions. posed to arrogate mything to myself spond? I did when they called on at the expense of the feme of his administration. Respectfully yours. W. A. GRAHAM.

Probable ConscessOpinion of Mosars, Colville & Co. There being so many conflicting rein regard to the cause of the explosion prictors in regard to the matter, which ing form. Most certainly, the opinion hands of the public :

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 4, 1873. Gents-We have calmly investigated the whole facts, and weighed all the COLVILLE & Co. vale Springs, in Happy Valley.

From the Southern Home VICE-PRESIDENT WILSON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1873.

Lobbyist-Extraordinary Illustration of the Value of Perseverance.

[Fom the Washington Capitol, Ma ch 2] A rich incident is related of "Our Henry"-so rich, in fact, that we caning it to our readers. "Our Henry, commonly known here as old "Hee taps," is well known for his piety and philanthrophy. In fact, philanthropy is his best hold, and he is never so happy as when doing something for poor, suffering humanity. But to our incident. Among the numerous nurses who went to the "front" during the late "oppleasantness," to care for the sick and suffering "boys in blue," was a Mrs. Blank, all the way from Maine, Now Maine is noted for the patriotism "The reasons for the measure were of her sons and daughters, and it would be supposed that Mrs. Blank was perfectly willing to serve her country on the scorce of patriotism. merely to keep up the reputation of the old "Pinetree" State, you know .-But she wasn't. For now the aforesaid Mrs. Blank comes all the way from Maine to press her claim for services rendered and injuries received while in the service of the Government, and the way she pressed it was a caution to novices, which would have delighted the heart of even Joe Stewart, while incarcerated in a "blasted" Congressional bastile. Of course Mrs. Blank aid siege to the affections of old Henry, as a starting point, who introduced her petition in the Senate, and had it referred to the committee on Military Affairs, of which H. T. was From that hour the troubles of "Heel-taps" commenced: for Mrs. Blank is none of your milk-and-water lobbyists who can easily be put off with a promise to do something; with her, the thing must be done. Then, angular and impudent, she moved a if worked by a becomotive: and as she swept past one could almost hear the clock-work of well-oiled and perfect machinery. "Heel-taps" promised, postponed, and begged off on various profests autil the patience of the party from Maine had become exhausted With the firm resolution that that day's "low decending sun" should not descend upon her still a suppliant at of the second session of Congress, and took her way to the tenement where "Heel taps" takes his daily indigestion at a low figure, The aforesaid H. T., she was informed upon inquiry, was off, in her mind, she declined waiting below, and waiving all formalities ascended to his room. A hold resolute knock was answered by the invitation to "come in." At the opposite side of the room, unconscious of impending danger, stood the Senator, at the comeleting his morning ablutions, for he was clad in abbreviating habitiment of a very thin texture. At sight of Mrs. Blank he hastily took shelter behind a towel, which he shook frantically as a flag of truce, Dominion, is a character. He was a public, it was the subject of some treat. It was of no use, however, the time for armistice had passed, and the oan of Arc, Sasan B. Anthony, or Dr. the door, and as deliberately put the ing favorably stated, he gave it his ap- key in her packet. Waving aloft her parasol in an ominous manner, the party from Maine proceeded to "define her position," winding up with a scathing denunciation of mankind in general and of the "Heel-taps" in paricular, stating her intention not to leave the room until she had satisfaction. She was not going to be put off any longer. She who had braved the dangers of a thousand battle-fields, as it were, and while carrying off a wounded soldier had fallen into a ritle pit and broken her leg. Not much. Not if she knew herself. "Heel-tapwas by this time thoroughly elarmed. He was ont of reach of the bell, and the person from Maine was nearest the wood box. He ventured mildly to suggest that there might be some mistake about the broken leg. This was the not until afterwards. By both I hope last hair that broke the camel's back. Like a tigress in defense of her young, the person from Maine pounced down upon "Hell-taps," who retreated be-I deprecate being presented as in hind a bair sofa, still protected by the conflict with Mr. Fillmore, for whose towel, where he helplessly sank in a relapse. Dropping her parasol, with which she had repeatedly "prodded" the trembling "Heel-taps," she struck a heroic attitude and again demanded her rights. "It was bad enough," she said, "to tag around after a Senator for satisfaction and justice, and put off The Recent Mill Explosiones The in the manner she had been, but to have doubts east on that broken legthat was too much. Flesh and blood could not stand it, and she now demanded a solemn pledge that she should have justice done. It was aggravating enough that she should sufat Messrs, Colville & Co's steam saw fer privations and diseases incident to camp life, but to have her word doubted was beyond human endurance. and she was therefore compelled to give him ocular proof, and withhave been furnished us in the follow- out waiting for objection or remonstrance, she proceeded to turn down a given by these gentlemen is entitled to No. 12 stocking and display a handfull weight and consideration at the some limb, and pointing to a protuberance thereon, demanded if her state-ments, as well as her character, had not been vindicated-said protuberance being necessarily the result of a broken leg. One glance was enough for Old Philanthropy. He fainted. The leg had rushed to his head. And it is only necessary to add that the day passed the Senate, and went to the House, where the reputation of Mrs. Blank and the story of her broken leg having preceded her -it was sumsuch a customer, I com whom none but

Heartrending Catastrophe.

From Mr. Joseph L. King, of Montvale Springs, the Knoxville Press and seen much service and smelt much it destroyed the power of the great powder, cares anything about capacity or qualifications in his appointments to put in steam the 10th of last January, the third had her right leg and thigh and have run constantly since, with- broken, and the fourth her right arm out any complaint of pumps, pipes, or shattered, while all of them were inany other deficiency, whatever. We ternally injured. No hopes are enter- very respectable numbrella, was seen farm, with a view of purchasing. Come and then continued : by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shackles passed in New 1018 by one he is shaking off the shaking of th imposed upon the Chief Executive of not have been accomplished but for its

The native New York shoe-blackers are in a state of excitement, occasioned by the competition in their business by the boys of the Italian emigrants to that city. The Italians "shine up" at three cents. An interview with one of the supplanted elicited an opinion of his party that the only way to settle matters was "to lay fur 'em," for, he added, "they dishes us outen all our obs, and shines is wus ner paper-selnot meet them on prices, he evaded the in' now." When asked why he did point adroitly by remarking that it did not make much matter to him, as he had a regular custom. Those who have hitherto depended on casual jobs, however, don't view the matter so philosophically, and whenever chance offers. the Italian interlopers are made to feel

An Attempt to Flog & Newark Pastor in His Pulpit. From the New York Sun Anril L On Sunday night, at the close of the sermon, the Rev. John Taylor, of the Catharine Street African Methodist piscopal church, Newark, announced that he had appointed Mrs. Francis eader of the female prayer-meeting. Mr. Newman, a church trustee, sprang to his feet and excitedly objected to the appointment. He said that it was duty of the trustees, not of the pastor, to make this appointment. A lozen angry voices were heard in favor of the pastor or against him. Mr. Taylor attempted to read the law, which gave him the power to make the appointment, but was unable to do so on account of the confusion. While the excitement was at its height a steward of the church, one Carny, threw off his coat, ran up the aisle. jumped the railing, and mounting the oulpit stairs, attempted to strike Mr. Taylor. The latter stood quietly in his place. A woman screamed to him shoot Carny, and as he was preparing to defend himself three men dragged his assailant away. The contusion continued several minutes, and Mr. Taylor was escorted to his home by a number of triends. The trouble had its origin in animosity to Mr.

Her Clothes Sell Car.

The recent sale of the Copress Fugenie's dresses has afforded many ladies an opportunity of possessing themselves of handsome costnines at a the evening costumes is that they were terial) without any trimming whatbodies with a mere steap for a show. These dresses admit of any style of trimming being placed upon them, and are consequently capable of being more worn than those more claborates ly made. The toilettes I saw were most beautifully worked, the strening which was all hand work, was as neat and regular as machine work, and every seam was bound with soft white silk. To those who are curious to know what an empress's dress may be purchased for, it may be interesting to wash-stand, almost in the abstract, snow that the toilets ranged in price from £5 to £15, the former price being given for a gray poplin walking dress, trimmed with black velvet and Maltesc lace; and the latter sum for a purple velvet evening dress, lined throughout with white silk, and having a long train. - Landon Correspondence Bes-

Jackson (Yenn.) Whig and Transport. L'ederni and Cantedernie. stopped at the plantation of a worthy secure his interest for a year. old citizen -not a thousand miles from He spoke cloquently of his long love was long and loud, and was a magnifi- tion, cent burst of off-hand eloquence. The "I am not positive," I added, "but old man the slightest damage. In a few next," Federals, he gushed all over in his of course," he queried. welcome of the Confederates. He urged them on to victory and inde- it down," I replied, and it never ocpendence. He spoke glowingly of the curred to me how imprudent I was. eloquence to the throne of Heaven, in about me. behalf of those around him, and their federates, with hearts filled with admivenerable patriot.

A strange story is told of a Pittsburg correspondent at the New York

that village, and his story is believed by citizens and confirmed by other tain McDaniels left for New York to purchase a stock of dry goods. On the train near New York he met a large, well-dressed gentleman, who proposed and did show him some samples, offering his goods at a very low rate. the stranger invited Captain Mc-Daniels into a nestaurant to take some coffee. After drinking it he immediately fell into a profound shanhimself in the hold of a vessel. He word of warning nevertheless. Don't was landed on a strange coast, finding take any strangers into your confidence able bodied members of Congress were out that it was the Island of Cuba. until you have passed out the money, There he fell into the hands of the Spanish soldiers, and traveled with them to the neighborhood of Havana, cantion me, and I could not but won-At night he escaped, and went to Havana, where he met with an English Herald learns the particulars of a sail Goldolphin, where his wants were reaffair which occurred near the Springs lieved, and a berth was obtained for during the storm which passed over him on a ship bound to New Orleans. that section on Tuesday last. Four the wrote he wrote home for skin, where the deft hand of a pick- for I expected she would utter a world must left he was leading to the skin, where the deft hand of a pick- for I expected she would utter a world must left he was leading to skin, where the deft hand of a pick-Herron, left a school house to go home ed to the great joy of his family, who

The inhabitants of a Western town were badly frightened one night last week at what appeared to be a monster comet in the constellation of the the strange looking 'creature' was nothing more than a crack in the Sunday School the other day with a that I am going out to-day to hook at a placed some fifties and twenties in it, for. "Well, for rape, highway rois-

"LITTLE BLUE EYES."

"Can I sit with you?" "Certainly, sir." "Nice weather." "Splendid, indeed. "Crops growing finely."

'Yes-couldn't do better.

I was sitting in a passenger coach on a Wisconsin railroad, one day, years ago, when a good-looking, pleas ant-spoken man came along, stopped at my seat, and the above conversation took place, the latter part of it after I had given him part of my seat. Now, I am regarded as a social man. I like a joke; a good hit, and I think a sour, morose man, who uses his tongue only when forced to, is bound to die of some terrible disease, and to go to some place of red-hot punish-

On entering a railroad car I always look about for a talkative man, and then I get as close to him as possible, and drain him dry, if the journey is long enough. And I want to state one thing more : Left an orphan before I could realize the event which had made me one, I got kicked out here and cuffed there. and "grew up between folks," as they I ought to have had at the time which I write a pretty thorough knowledge of human nature, and have been enabled to read evil in a man's face, if he intended me evil. I did not pride myself on being over keen or sharp, but the knocking around among strangers ought to have given any one a good experience.

Well the stranger and I fell into an easy strain of conversation as we rode ogether, and in ten minutes I began to enjoy his company. He was a well-made fellow, finely dressed, and he wore a fine watch and a simon-pure liamond ring. I never saw a man who could talk so easy and pleasantly. It seemed that he had but to open his mouth and the words fell right out. I had traveled in the South, so had

I had heard the loud roar of the Pacific, he knew all about it. I had been up in a balloon, down in a mine, blown up, smashed up and repaired greatly frighteness.

blown up, smashed up and repaired "You are bad off," be continued, He tried to leap up, but three or four again and again, my new friend had looking into my face. "I will drive as farmers strack him down, and one of Proform experienced all these things and was fast as possible and get a doctor." vishing for something of a more comparatively small cost. Her Majesstranger to you ten minutes before, know what ailed that man. Raleigh ries, and had fortunate you had sworn to yourself not to re- ward. veal? Well, he was such a man, It was not long before he commenced asking me questions. He did not seem soon reached. The pain in my bend fence. ever : perfectly plain long skirts and trying to quiz or draw me out, but he asked me questions in such a sly, badly affected when opening my eyes. as to secure an advantage, and Raleigh roundabout way, that before I knew it. I had settled into a sort of dumb capture was the result

I was at that time on the point of as a student of Law & Law, of Briefville. The firm were old lawvers with a lucrative practice, and it had been talked over that in about a mouth I should be the "Co." of the firm. A back into the woods. I could not unhad died, and his matters had been put into the hands of Law & Law for settlement. Preston had roud stock, Raleigh, when we had reached a point. The Philadelphia Press cails attensettled up to the satisfaction of the relict and the fatherless.

About a yerr before his death, being sinched for money, and not wishing to sell anything at a sacrifice, Preston had given a mortgage on his farm for three marked thousand dollars. While the papers down read "for one year from date." was a verbal agreement that it should : Prayer is powerful, and its power be lifted any day when Preston deas never more fully illustrated than sired. A month after, when, having on the following occasion: A squadron | the funds to clear off the paper, the of Federal soldiers during the war old money-bags holding it refused to

I was on my way to ascertain the this city. The old gentleman mentioned was exuberant in his welcome. date of expiration, A fire among our tioned was exuberant in his welcome. randa, and I must go down and get the of the Union, and how it gladdened date from old Scrip, who lives south of his aged eyes to gaze once more on the Grafton about five miles. The stranger "old flag." He invited the whole pumped all this out out of me in ten squadron to unite with him in prayer, minutes, and yet I never once suspectwhich they promptly did. His prayer ed that he was receiving any informa-

Federals were profoundly impressed and departed without inflicting on the thirteenth, which would be Tuesday

hours a squadron of Confederates came ... And then your folks will send down up and if the old man was cordial to the the money and discharge the mortgage, "Oh, yes, I shall most likely bring struggle of their fathers for liberty, He turned the conversation into and bade them imitate the patriotism other channels, and did not once atof '76. He called on them to join him tempt to pump me further. We got in prayer, and such a prayer it was. to Grafton at 10:50, and to my great Even the birds ceased their songs to surprise he announced that he was to listen, and the silence was only broken stop in the town on business for a die first!" I volled, rising a little. by the old man's trembling voice as he few days. I had not asked his name

We went to the hotel, had dinner, holy cause. The prayer done, the Con- and then I secured a livery team and drove out, getting through with busiration for the aged patriot, pursued ness, so that I was back to take the on after the enemy, strengthened in 3:20 express east. My friend was on Lying on my right side looking toward hope for their cause, and leaving un- the porch of the hotel as I drave up, harmed everything possessed by the carrying the same honest, dignified

"Well, did you find out?" he inquired in his pleasant way. "Yes; it is on the thirteenth, as expected," I replied.

Herald of the kidnapping of Captain We had lunch together, and when McDaniels, a merchant of the village we shook hands and parted, I had no of Canonsburg, near that city. Capidea of ever meeting him again, than tain McDaniels, the correspondent asserts, is a highly respected citizen of told me that he should sail for England within a week or ten days, and should not return to America. At parting he cumstances. In October last Cappagave me his card. It was a modest piece of pasteboard and bore the name of "George Raleigh," in old English > usual, and the thirteeuth came at last knot, I winked at the little girl as spot. Nobody witnessed the tragedy. length. Law & Law had arranged for me to go down with the money, and I looked upon it as a baisness of no special importance.

and look out who sits next to you." It was something new for him to der at it; but in the bustle of getting this to-day." abourd the train I forgot what he had said. Ordinary prudence had induced the packages, and was cool enough to the ground that no warrant had ever been being and distill the count the money. As he been issued against his client. And bank bills, and divided into three commenced the little girl waved her still, Wells, though at liberty, doesn't ocket could not reach it.

or a shout, but she sank down from whose name is Sain, and westing a new sight, and I caught a gleam of her investigation. He thinks he has not pocket could not reach it.

the hoarse voice of the brakeman warned me that I had reached Grafton. I marked Raleigh, as he snew off one of had leaped down, an , was making for his boots and deposited some of the A distressed looking individual, who the livery stable, when I heard a familiar voice, and looked up to see Raleigh Bear. The local editor, however, put their fears at rest by telling them that seemingly waited for me to come up.
"Don't express your surprise," he tices who do such work. All the real prison; there was too much false "Don't express your surprise," he tices who do such work. All the real prison; there was too much false began, as I stopped at the wheel. "I gentlemen of our calling do business swearing; he had been there and knew did intend to go away, but I changed as gentlemen should." A good little key, who started for my mind, and like this section so well. He drew off the other boot and him what he had ever been in prison one is considered very critical. The father of the children is a farmer living five miles southwest of Montvale Springs, in Happy Valley.

The to the umbrells, but lost his testament we were discussing it, Mr. Raleigh dismoney disposed of around my person. I shall lay you on your back and pour three hundred feet.

Hans Christian Andersen, who is money disposed of around my person. I shall lay you on your back and pour the balance of this wine down your three hundred feet.

"How fortunate? I could ride out throat "Phono is a soon as I get this money disposed of around my person. I shall lay you on your back and pour the balance of this wine down your three hundred feet."

"How fortunate? I could ride out throat "Phono is a soon as I get this money disposed of around my person. I shall lay you on your back and pour the balance of this wine down your three hundred feet."

with him, see the farm, return in his

told me, as we got into the buggy, that | your hands and remove the gag. When George Raleigh meant to return with my money in his pocket and my blood ever do—you had better crawl out to upon his hands, I should have believed the road, where you will most likely him a lunatic. And yet George Ral- meet some traveller soon. I want to eigh had planned that very thing.

It was a lovely day in June, and the would leave them for you.

tive, but he didn't even hint at my had made me a fast prisoner, and I felt errand. He talked as far away as he that he could do just as he pleased. O! excuse me!" he exclaimed, af- white face appear between the rail ter we had passed a mile beyond the again, but in a moment it faded away, village, and were smong the farm- and in its place was taken by the snn houses. "I should have offered you burned phiz of a farmer. He looked this before."

flask of wine and handed it to me. readily understood. His face disap-Now I was temperate in regard to peared, and I felt that I should be drinks. In fact, I detested the sight | saved. But I had not the moral courage to tell | day," mused Raleigh, storing away hlm so and to hand back the flask un- the bills in his pockets, "You will go disturbed. I feared to offend him. and so I drank perhaps three good and cut up, but they should not blame swallows. He called my attention to you; it is not your fault at all. True the woods on the left, as he received had you minded your business on the back the flask, and when I looked car and not been so free with a stranger, around again he was just removing it this would not have happened. I was

In about five minutes I began to feel queer. The fence along the road | eigh finished his counting, and I made seemed to grow higher and the trees to grow larger; something got into my to interfere and had can away. My sounded a long way off.

a snaky smile stealing over his face; be through with this business," he reshouldn't wonder if it was apoplexy. I did not suspect the game he had played. His words were like an echo, I rolled my head to one and his face seemed twice as large as did not succeed. He was jaraning the it was. My head began to spin and flask against my teeth, when I caught my brain to snap and coack, and I was the sound of a soft step, the crash of a startling nature. We agreed on pedinot reply. I clutched the seat, shut ties, neither had any religion, and I my eyes, and he put the horse at his Over beyond the pasture a farm and I can remember that one of the "Little Blue Eyes," only eight years occupants of the wagon called out to old, had wandered off after strawber-

a long stretch of forest, and this we there," and he had returned to the was not so violent, and I was not so he and his men had moved around so stupor, with a brain so benumbed that I had to say to myself, "This is a tree, was terribly taken aback, and cursed being admitted to the bar of Wisconsin that is a stump," etc., before I could make sure that I was not wrong. Half We took him back to Grafton, and a mile down the road after we struck when I last saw him he was on his way the forest, and then Raleigh turned to the penitentiary to serve a sentences the larse into a blind road leading of fifteen years, forty rods from the main road.

hitched him, and then came round to Corn Exchange, in London, at from 19 guess you will be better soon," he re- at 31 to 31 shillings. This is at an marked "Come, let me help you average of $8 for "reconds," and un-

the sent and fell into them. It seemed must be added 15 per emi, to reduce to me as if I weighed a ton, but he it into our currency. The same qua haid me down within about a rod of a phia, where they are manufactured, fence which ran along on one side of respectively for $10 and $15, currency. an old pasture. Just now I began to The British dealer, who has to pay get a little better. The effects of the freight and insurance in a drug were wearing off, and I got a faint cost, doubtless makes a living profit suspicion that something unusual had vet sells American flour very consider move a limb; the sensation was like almost pay to import American flore that when your foot goes to sleep. "Can you speak?" inquired Raleigh. bending over me : "because if you can it will save me some trouble. I want: Ghostshave lately become soulentiful

His face looked natural again, and the have been thicker in the Northern load was off tay tongue. I also felt States than elsewhere, but they are that I could move my fingers a little, how settling in large numbers in eligible "George Raleigh! are you going to locations in the South. There is a rob me?" I asked, finding my voice ghost in Georgia who indulges in the bing, but we dress no the term a little | nate family in whose garret he has by calling it the only correct financial taken up his abode. As to the character way of equalizing the floating curren- of this ghost there can be no doubt cy, so that each one is provided for,

"You shan't have the money. I will be had the desire-to hear mails red "Alt Isec -didn'ttake quite enough!" in order to annoy peaceable people. appealed with touching and sublime or vocation, while he knew everything he coolly remarked. "Well, I have The Georgia ghost clearly comes from provided for this. He went to the buggy, procured be returns to his warmer residence > the fence, he tied my hands behind me and then forced the gag into my mouth. "There, now! You see you are nicely fixed up, and all because you acted like a fool, instead of a sensible young lawyer soon to be admitted to the bar. While he was speaking -indeed while e was tving me. I had caught sight of the white face of a little girl boxing at us from between the rails of the fence. I could see her great blue eyes and were red stains around her month and lawyer. Wells acted upon t on the little hand resting on the rail. and I knew that she was some farmer's and I knew that she was some larrier s coming with his weapon, and also went child searching for strawberries. I coming with his weapon, and also went child searching for busy larger and for his gun. When he next came out. could not warn her of her danger, and I feared that she would be seen or of his house, gru in band, Wells heard. While Raleigh was tying the fired and killed him on the hard as I could, hoping that she would | The next step could bloody after was when

Redeigh, and he began searching my vieinity, fold that he had killed Shurty marked the senior partner, as I was other representation one to the land said they had before go up and down my boot-ber, and then finally passed has band over my bosom and found the money.

"Ha! here it is!" be exclaimed, drawing out the packages. "I don't hardly believe old Grip with sec any of packagent by

by, as the train flew west, and at length frock as she passed through the grass, been examined enough, Courter "You see, my young friend," re- Herald. bills in it, "there's nothing like trans- had been summoned to serve as a jurde acting business as it should be trans- in Philadelphia, asked the judge toacted. Some men would have shot or excuse him because he had con-cien-

nd then continued:

"I have it all planned out how to evny!" He was excused.

company, and he was greatly by that time I shall be hundreds of miles away. As soon as I see that the I was also pleased. If any one had drug has taken effect, I shall untie

LARS per annum; ONE DOLLAR for six months subscription received to the Weekly for less

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL

ENGELHARD & SAUNDERS, Editors and Proprietors. WHOM ALL LETTERS ON BUSINESS MUST BE

THE DAILY JOURNAL is mailed to sub-

cool breeze and the sight of meadows | How coolly he talked! He treated and green groves made my heart grow the matter as if it were a regular translarger. My companion was very talka- action in which I fully acquiesced. He While I was thinking, I saw the little from me to Raleigh and back again, He drew from his pocket a small and I winked at him in a way which he

back to Law & Law feeling put out from his mouth, as if he had drank on my way to Milwaukee, and had no thought of such pickings here, I saw nothing of the farmer, Ral-up my mind that the farmer was afraid heart went down as Raleigh got up, for I saw that he was about to carry "How strange! Why, I believe I out his plan of further drugging me, am going to be sick!" I exclaimed, He turned me on my back, sat down holding on to the seat with all my astride of me, and then pulled out the marked, trying to put the mouth of the them readered him senseless. Befor About three miles from Grafton was told him that "a man was tied up our

When the rascal found his senses he year before, a farmer named Preston, derstand what he intended. I tried to and the gift which Law & Law sent grapple with the question, but could little Katie Gray kept her in dresses

He stopped the borse, got out and selling on the fact that American ilour was to 26 shillings a barrel, and a higher He reached up his arms and I let go These prices are in gold, to which appened. But I was powerless to ably under American prices. It would soon become a necessity of every well "Well, some folks might call it rob- hot nails on the heads of the unfortucould have any opportunity-even if

> The Way They bo It in Yebraska. Charles Wells sold a cow to an old man named Shurty, in Stanton county, Nebraska, and was to receive in payment thirty days' labor, which wer be counted at one dollar per day? A asked his advice. "Go and soze the and, as he expected some opposition.

"Well, now for the money!" said Wells stopped at a cabinet shop in the for that purpose. The result was that a Laver, who procured a heliens how it was himself. The judge asked